Dear Mr. Belfrage,

Your wonderful Sally who sends you this says, "please enclose a note saying + said he should try to review it for the National Guardian." I hope you will have time to read it soon and will share her high opinion. She knows the non-publishing history.

I did send Aronson one of the first copies, a month ago, with an unanswered letter.

If you have any ~~irresolvable~~ questions, please ~~write~~ ask the... Sorry I'm so post exhaustion I cannot write well or take time for immediate explanations. This rather exotic format is taking well, was well received at the American Booksellers' meeting in Washington, has had a fantastic press, some intended to refute it - like 8 columns across the top of the front page of the Washington Post, with a jump inside, totalling about a full page. It is getting some radio attention, a good, and a few kind comments elsewhere.

Thanks for anything you can do.

Sincerely,

Harold Weisberg
